The "Alabama" Claims -The Clerkenwell Explosion Conspiracy.

[Correspondence of the New York Times.]

LONDON, Wednesday, January 29th.

The question of arbitration still occuples a good deal of space in the newspa-pers. Lord Hobart and "Historicus" keep up the fight with a plack equal to that of Sayers and Hesnan. The Chron-icle, an able if not a very likely high class weekly, holds that the question respecting the recognition of the Confederates as belligerents is one "wholly unfit for arbita-tion, which deals with facts, not law." There is no international tribunal of juris prudence. Each Power must judge such questions for itself, and there must come time when a great Power can no longer, consistently with its own independence go on heaping up usebss concessions. The interests of peace are not really consulted by giving to baseles expectations the countenance derived from the success of unjust demands."

this question were one to be settled in a newspaper paragraph it had been forever done for by the following in the Pall Mall Gazette:

"Suppose in an arbitration between the Americans and ourselves the arbitrator were to find that he had behaved so badly that we ought to make a humile apology, pay twenty millions sterling and give up Cork, Limerick, and Halifer to the United States as pledges for the payment of the money, would such an award be acted upon? It would be more waste paper, and so would any award which appeared to either side disinctly unjust As to the question whether we were right in the matter of the proclamation, Lord Hobart has not said one word, and cannot say one word to the broad act that the proclamation, of neutrality wis an answer to the preclamation of bbckade. It admits of no answer."

THE CLERKENWELL CONSTRACY. Yesterday there were nine persons in prison charged with the crime of murder in the Clerkenwell explosion. When they were brought into the litte cage of a Police Office in Bow street one missing. Seven men were in he dock and one woman, unable to sand, was Among the aen were Barrett and O'Neile, brought atew days ago from Glasgow. Prisoners, sectutors, and his own counsel looked for the missing prisoner in vain. The Grom Pro-secutor rose, and the first wittess he called was Patrick Mullany. It came ghastly pale, frembling in every linb, and speaking in so faint a voice tha the questions were often repeated. He had been a Centre-Centre of tipsy tailes on a strike in St. Giles. He had been tro-duced to the leaders of the Fenian tove-ment from America. He and his ment from America. He and his companions had been mixing Greek fre a year ago. They had clubbed all the money they could raise, and with gent effort collected the powder to "blow he Clerken well Prison to hair One of barrel and another the truck, ad muddled with liquor they carried out thir stupid plot, and then Barrett, who hd lighted the fuse, cut off his whisken. changed his clothing, and got off Scotland. It appears that two y ung Pres-ton gentlemen, of good position and surple fortune, but given lately to considerable speculation, began one day to discuss sporting matters; they commented upon the merits of coled racers and their progeny, and at last the calebrated noimal Stockwell, his various achievements, and those of his merits of roted racers and their progeny, and at last the calebrated normal. Stockwell," his various achievements, and those of his colts and fillies, became the subject of conversation. By and by one of the gentlemen stated that he would give 20,000l. for 'Stockwell," if his friend could obtain pessession of him within a certain time, but that if he failed to do so he must forfeit 3 000l. The challenge was accepted, and the gentleman who had the task of obtaining possession of 'Stockwell,' before him at once communicated with a local owner of racehorses. Nogotiations were commenced for the purchase of 'Stockwell,' and it eventually became the property of the Preston gentleman for 10-000l.—not too large an amount, many disciples of the turf would say, seeing that the earnings of 'Stockwell' as a stud horse have for many years, it is said, been 7,000l, on $0.00l, per annum. When this bargain was completed the gentleman who had offered in the parange matters.

solicitors were called in to arrange matters for him. A considerable sum was offered in the shape of 'smart' money', and we enderstand it has been accepted.—Times.

English and Continental Echoes.

Our English files contain news to the 15th February; An agitating circumstance during the fortnight has been the mysterious disappearance of Rev. R. Speke, brother of the African explorer. The most thorough search has been made for the missing gentleman, but beyond the discovery of his hat, on Birdcage walk, nothing has been found. The new Press Bill in the French Chambers has created a great surprise. The bill allows any person to establish a journal without previous permission, abolishes the imprisonment of journalists, and refers all Press offences to the magistrates, who, however, can only punish by fine. M. Rouher went down to the Chamber, informed the majority in smooth but unmistakable phrase that bill must and should pass, that if they rejected it, they might go to their constituents as the opponents at once of Napoleon and of liberty. Of the eight millions of voters who created the Empire four millions were dead, a new generation had arisen demanding a larger liberty, and it should have it. The majority turned white-knowing well that a free press will flay them alive-but obeyed, and the first clause of the bill was passed by 215 to 7, whom M. Granier do Cassagnac, their leader, at once styled the "Seven Wise Men." The marriage of Prince Hum. bert, heir apparent of Italy, with his cousin, the Princess Margherita, Duchess of Genoa, is fixed for April next, and has been formally announced to the Italian Chambers. The bride is but just sixteen, but " graceful and intelligent"-like all princesses-and the marriage appears to give unqualified satisfaction in Italy, where the dread of the foreigner is strong. The match appears to have been somewhat hurried by the King, and there is a rumor in Florence, probably quite unfounded, that on its completion Victor Emanuel will abdicate the throne. Mr Lowe has put forward his address, in the shape of a letter to Mr Julian Goldsmid, M. P., and 250 graduates of the University of London. It is written with a certain dignity, and pride in the writer's personal achievements as a politician, but is not otherwise remarkable. Mr Lowe admits that he dissented from the policy of the Liberal party on Reform. He did so because he thought, and still thinks, "that really liberal and enlightened measures and administration were more likely to be attained under the old than under the new constituencies." Now that the question is at an end, " we must expect a much greater demand for equity than heretofore, and ought to pass our institutions in review, modifying such things as seem likely to wound this feeling, and founding ourselves upon principles which will bear the test of discussion in a democratic assembly." Mr Lowe advocates the infusion of "distinguished merit" into the House of Lords. on an equal footing with "rank and wealth." A conference of the Nonconformists of Hampshire, Salisbury and Poole was held on Tuesday in Southampton, to discuss the subject of education. About 350 attended, and they resolved almost unanimously.

the largest opposition being 20, that Government aid in the education of the poor was a necessity, that such aid was no breach of Non-conformist principle, that a conscience clause was indispensable, that the time has come for day-schools supported wholly or mainly out of public rates or taxes,

and that "it is necessary to render the instruction of every child in the rudiments of learning compulsory on English parents." The world moves.

Mr Bright made a great speech at Birmingham

on the condition of Ireland. He attacked

Lord Stanley for his cold declaration of the hopelessness of the case, but remarked that his declaration that the Ministry would yield nothing to noise and to menace came rather badly after the concession of last session,

avowedly yielded to noise and to menace.

repeal of the Union, denied that such a repeal of the Union was not a course conceiva pointed to the fact that the repeal of the one wished to adopt that desperate remedy for Church, Mr Bright pointed out that if any man supposed that the Irish people would permit such a Church he must think Ireland

"a buge lunatic asylum." He proposed to ecularize the Church property, distributing £3,000,000 out of the estimated £13,000,000

terians now assisted by regium donum, and to the Roman Catholics in fair proportionmaking them absolutely free Churches ever after. A letter from Algiers, in the Vigie of Cherbourg, gives some heartrending details of the famine among the Arabs. The writer says :- " At Orleansville I have seen from 150 to 200 of these poor wretches, scarcely covered with ragged burnous, eating the leaves of the aloe plant, the roots of the dwarf palm, and the filthy fragments abandoned in the streets. I have seen natives coming down from the mountain with asses laden with dates robbed of all in an instant by these famished Arabs. The latter I have seen cudgelled unmercifully by Europeans in order to make them desist, and yet they received the blows without seeming to feel them rather than give up a single date. At Relizanne I noticed squatted on the footpath, with their backs against the wall, some dozen Arab children, the oldest of whom could scarcely be more than four. When I say children I make a mistake; they were only skeletons. Their legs and arms were, in he most rigorous meaning of the words, no more than bones covered with shrivelled skin. On looking at those poor little things, so fright-150 to 200 of these poor wretches, scarcely than bones covered with shrivelled skin. On looking at those poor little things, so frightfully shrunk, one was at a loss to know by what effort they could stand on their feet. I bought a dozen pound loaves and distributed them to the starving children, but this was scarcely done when I was surrounded by a score of Arabs vociferating for a share. Only with great difficulty could I get out from the midst of the poor wretches, the numbers of whom rapidly increased, and had it not been for the assistance of some Europeans I do not know what might have become of me. Scarcely had I got clear of the growd when I as w ly had I got clear of the crowd when I saw them fall upon the children and snatch away the bread which I had distributed. At Oran, in the middle of the city, in front of the Hotel to the present Protestant Church, the Presby-

of spectacles. Every evening there is thrown out of that establishment the remains of the out of that establishment the remains of the kitchen—damaged leaves of salad and other vegetables, the entrails of fowl and game, and fifth of that kind. Well, on the evening I speak of I saw a dozen Arabs fighting with the dogs of the neighborhood over this offal." Large supplies of money are still seeking employment, and good bills are readily taken at 135 per cent. STEAMSHIP ITEMS-The Pacific Mail Steamship Company will run four steamers per month between San Francisco and New York. commencing April sixth, with the steamer Golden Age. The sailing days from San Francisco will be the 6th, 14th, 22d and 30th; and from New York, will be the lst, 9th. 16th and 25th of each month. The present month promises to be one of unusual activity in steamship offairs. The following is a list of steamers announced for New York April 4th Moses Taylor, San Juan; April 6th Golden Age, Panama; April 14th, Sacramento, Panama; April 15th, Nebraska, Panama; April 22d, Montana, Panama; April 30th, Colorado, Panama, and possibly another steamer will be added to this list by the opposition line between the 15th and 30th of this month. In view of the addition of another mail steamer every month, it has been suggested that during the continuance of this arrangement, there be but two steamer days per month, namely, the 14th and 29th. It is reported that the steamship Guiding Star at New York, has been purchased by the North American Steamship Co. The same company recently bought the steamers Arago and Fulton, formerly in the Liverpool trade.

THE most encouraging intelligence continues to reach us from the mines by every arrival. The old discoveries prove to be richer than was even hoped and new creeks lately developed promise large yields. Canadian Crock, the newest favorite, Grouse and Cedar Creeks and Mosquito and Stout Gulches, have paid handsomely during the severest winter weather. The New Dominion claim, on Canadian Creek, is believed to be the richest in the country. Messrs. Sparrow and Kane, of this city, recently discovered that of 1500 feet in this claim only 1000 feet had been recorded, whereupon they 'took up' the extra 500 feet and since hold it by a decision of Mr Brew.

PERSONAL .- Private letters state that Di Brown, the eminent explorer and geologist, is in London, preparing his forthcoming work announced yesterday. Mr T H Long, of the Colonist, was in Dublin on the 25th February, about to return to this colony. Me W dington's lecture before the London Geographical Society was set for the 24th February. Mr Donald Fraser was spending a few weeks in Jersey. Capt. Bazelgatte, formerly of San Juan, Mr B S Levy, of this city, and Mr Selim Franklin, were met in London on the 15th February.

TERRIBLE .- A telegram from San Fraccisco to the Portland papers states that on the 2d April W. H. Abell, who was recently charged with rape upon a little girl, was being tried in the police court that morning, and when the case came up pulled a razon from his pocket and cut his throat from ear to ear. He expired immediately. He left a note stating that he was entirely innocent of the charge, and that he preferred death to the stigma which would attach to his name The little girl also persistently denies the truth of the charge against Abell.

RESIDENTS in the suburbs complain very justly of the condition of the streets leading to their dwellings. They say that on the main thoroughfares nearly all the money raised by taxation is lavished, while the side streets remain in a state of primitive impassibility. This complaint is worthy the attention of our energetic Mayor and Council.

FOR NEW WESTMINSTER .- The steamer Enterprise sailed at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, with 80 passengers and a fine Among the passengers we noticed Hon Dr Helmcken; Dr Foster, of Lillooet; F H Lamb and A G Richardson, Western Union Telegraph Company; Mr and Mrs Dewdney and James F Barry, of Yale.

WHISKEY SELLING .- The offence of s. llit q whisky to Indians is alarmingly on the ir crease. Three cases were heard yesterday i the Police Court. Two of the oflende.s were committed and remanded for three days; the other escaped punishment by technicality.

No Hopes of an Opposition .- Mr Raymond, the San Francisco agent of the North American Steamship Co., writes to a gentleman of this city, that there is no prospect that an opposition will be put on the Oregon trade, this spring .- Portland Oregonian .

The Patent Slip.

The Patent Slip.

Editor Colonist:—I see by your moining edition there is $35,000 to be applied to build a patent slip, capable of taking out a 1000 ton ship, (the money most likely to be sent away for another elephant.) I have the estimates and plans of a patent slip, got up for Victoria, which will take out a 1,000 ton ship worked by two horses only and haulher up high and dry in one hour and a half, the cost of which will not exceed eight thousand dollars to build. The iron work can all be got up at Spratt & Kreimler's foundry. (This estimate is for the work to be done here in town.) The lots to lay the slip on may cost $2,000 more to purchase and to have everything in working order would not exceed ten thousand dollars, and after not exceed ten thousand dollars, and after built there will be no expense whatever to run it. P. J. HALL.

Leech River.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST,-I left Leech River on Saturday last with quite a different impression of the mining operations to that furnished in your paper of this morning. I think things never looked so encouraging since the flume and ditch were completed as they do now. There are more people using the water from the flume than ever, and with better results; eleven men are using the wa ter. They are working in the beach dig-gings, making from $150 to $200 per day. Page & Co. have stopped werk in their tun nel and are working in the benches with encouraging prospects.

ONTARIO AND QUEBEC.

The Dominion Telegraph Company has been organized, with headquarters at Toronto The lines of this company are immediately to be extended to all business points throughout the Dominion. Confracts for the poles are given out. The lines will connect, in the United States, with the lines of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company.

The Toronto Globe patriotically advocates the opening up of roads through the North West Territory, even though it should involve expenditure from the Ontario Treasury.

FORESTALLING the action of the Legislature of Nova Scotia on the resolutions intro-duced by Mr Wilkins, the Attorney General, Mr Howe has taken his departure for England. The other delegates, of whom Mr Annand, it is rumored, will be one, are shortly to follow, and the Imperial Cabinet is thus to have another bout with the repealers. We can readily understand that Mr Howe, ambitious and unscrupulous as he is, takes a malicious pleasure in forecasting the conferences which he will press upon the Colonial Minister. He will now presume to speak with more authority than he did when Next to this the subject of most interest Colonial Minister. He will now presume to speak with more authority than he did when he was in England before, and will have the Duke of Backingham, instead of Lord Car-narvon, to deal with. There is no reason why either Ontario or Quebec should interfere in this matter. Let it be fought out in Nova Scotia and London. We have little fears of the result. The Colonial Secretary may well ask that the reople of Nova Scotia shall give Confederation a fair trial. The course which they are now taking is a mere could the which they are now taking is a mere coullition of temper. It has neither argument nor the advantage of the Empire or the provinces in its favor. In the meantime the Nova Scotia Legislature will adjourn; the Confederate members will come to October in March, and do their work there. Ottawa in March, and do their work there, and draw their pay, under protest. It is very farcical.—Toronto Leader.

Simcon, Feb. 9—Mr Wm. F. Salmon, Judge of the County Court of the County of Norfolk, died this afternoon, aged 63.

Kingston, Feb. 10-The Bank of Montreal building had a narrow escape from being destroyed by fire this afternoon. About one o'clock fire was discovered in the basement occupied by the furnace and kitchen, but was extinguished after great exertions by the firemen. The building is greatly injured through its entire extent by smoke and water. Two of the women servants were nearly anffocated.

After retiring he was attacked with cramps and was unable to get up. On Saturday forenoon he grew rapidly worse, and by night was totally insensible, breathless, and apparently dead. He lay in this condtion till the Monday following, when he was buried. It was noticed, provious to his interment, that he board on which he lay was warm, that his hand was closed and sweaty, while his face had lost its rigidity and assumed a pleas not smile. This was soon noised abroad, and ant smile. This was soon noised abroad, and parties were bold to affirm that he was still alive! Immediately a party went to the alive! Immediately a party went to the grave and hastily broke open the coffin. No signs of life, however, were then visible, and a coroner's inquest being held upon the body a verdict was returned of 'death from ex-bausticn and exposure.' He was in the grave about an hour before disinterment."

Suicide By a Bride.—The Owen Sound Times says: Mr Charles Van Felson, of Cornabus, was married to a young lady named Miss Hall, of Artemisia, and but a few mioutes had elapsed after the ceremony which made them man and wife (we believe before the officiating elergyman had retired from the bouse) when the mirth of the company was uppend into sadness on learning that the turned into sadness on learning that the bride had taken a poisonous dose of lauda-num, and in six hours thereafter she expired; thus bringing to a melancholy and tragical termination an event which is usually looked upon as one of the greatest happiness and joy. No reason for the rash act has been as-

The St John Telegraph states that New Brunswick starts, under Confederation, with a surplus of $200,000. Mr Blanchard stated a day or two since in the Nova Scotta Logis-lature that his Province has $137,000 to its credit, and that on the first of July next the Dominion Government will pay $324,000.

Wellington, Feb. 7, 1868.

Sir George Ferguson Bowen arrived here from Sydney by the s.s. Kaikoura on Toesday the fourth instant. As was previously arranged, bugles sounded all over the town immediately that the vessel was signalled, the Volunteers fell in near the wharf, crowds of people gathered around, the vessels in the barbor quickly displayed bunting ad libitum, and the Government steamer St. Kilda with the Hon. E. W. Stafford, Premier, on board, put off to meet the Kuikoura, which by this time had steamed into the harbor and dropped anchos. After keeping everybody waiting for more than an hour Sir George decided not to land that evening, but at ten o'clock the next morning. Report says that he asked Mr Stafford where were the other Ministers, the Judge and the leading gentlemen of the city who should have gone to meet him, and that the delay in his landing was because they had not turned out. But if they were not to be seen on board the St. Kilda there certainly was no lack of them assembled on the whatf to welcome him. Not one man of note or any lady of standing in Wellington was absent from the conclave who gathered to greet Sir George Browen on the luesday afternoon. A more numerous or brilliant assemblage I have never seen in Wellington, and he would have been very fastidious who would have found fault with the reception all were prepared to give. There certainly were no triumphal arches in the streets, there had been no preparation of that kind made, but the reason was simply that so many blunders have been made over Sir George's arrival, so many rumors as to when he would or would not come, that even the Ministry here know little with any cer-tainty as to when he might be expected. Under these circumstances how could any preparation be made.

eparation be made.

On the next morning—Wednesday—the Volunteers fell in and the Artillery unlimbered preparatory to firing a salute at 8 o'clock, at which time also a growd collected. but in that crowd there was a marked diffier-ence to that which had assembled on the previous day. Scarcely a lady was to be seen in the streets, and beyond the lower class not a man was to be seen whose duty care to compet and to go out.

At ten o'clock, the St Kilda having required and house.

At ten o'clock, the St Kilda having previously landed his carriage and borses, Sir George Ferguson, accompanied by Lady Bowen, the Missea Nina, Zoe and Agnes Bowen, Master Bowen, Sir George's Private Secretary, the Captain and officers of II M S S Falcon (which is lying in the harbor) and the Ministers who had gone off to meet him, landed on the wharf, the crewd being kept back by a line of Volunteers, who with fixed bayonets presented arms as he passed, their band playing the National Anthem and the crowd cheering lustily. At this time the Falcon fired a salute of sixteen guns, which was replied to by the artillery on

The cortege then drove to Government House, in front of which, at noon, the ceremony of swearing in the new Governor by just now is the fearful storms and floods and floods which so far as we have been able and floods which so far as we have been able to learn as yet seem to have visited all New Zealand alike. On Saturday last the 1st of February we in Wellington felt a slight shock of earthquake, not very much, but still the sharpest we have had for twelve years; very lattle damage was done, a few chimneys were knocked down, but nothing of any importance occurred. This seems to have been felt very generally over the colony but was nowhere very serere. It was followed by most extraordinary weather, heat and cold, wind and calm, rain and sunshine following each other in quich successhine following each other in quich succession till Monday morning when the barometer fell lower than it has been here for—I don't fell lower than it has been here for—I don't know how long, but certainly as long as its indications have been noted. This also seems to have been general over New Zealand, it standing so low that Captains in all ports were telegraphing to each other about it. This of course presaged queer weather and on Monday we had it. Nelson, Blenheim, Picton, Havelock, Christchurch, Lyttleton, Dunedin, Oamarr, Limaru, and in fact every place from which we have heard is flooded. The telegraph is washed away almost throughout the island, so news does not come in as quickly, but each steamer as it arrives brings fresh tidings of vessels weeked on the shores, and farm cultivation, bridges, roads, brings fresh lidings or vessors wice account shores, and farm cultivation, bridges, roads, houses and everything destroyed by floods. In the Middle Islands they have had thirty-five consecutive days of steady rain. The five consecutive days of steady rain. The damage done can scarcely be estimated. Ruin seems to stalk through the colony.

Roughly I may estimate the loss at £500.

HOLLOWAYS PILLS -Restoratives Tret men It has been confirmed by the experience of thirty years that these Pills constitute the best alterative and tonic medicine hitherto available by the public. It is enough to say that a short course of these purifying Pills have in numberless cases been marked by the mose gratifying results, when the invalids were becoming daily weaker and worse, though no particular disease could be detected. Holloway's Pills purify the source of life, re-kindle the fading energies, revive the sick and delicate, and raise up the broken-down cause it is so well suited to the community a large, and its innocent nature precludes the possi-bility of its causing mischlef under any circumstance whatever.

says: One day during the latter part of last week a middle-aged man named Isaac Carrie, of the township of Mono, went to Torsonto on a visit with his wile. There she took sick, and Mr Currie came home done. He did not go to bed till 2 a. m. of Saturday morning, having eaten nothing for some time, and suffered much from cold and exposure. A few days age a man in Nolson quarrelled with another over some woman. They fought and one was threshed, when he mounted his horse, road nine miles, borrowed a rifle, rode back again and blew out his opponent's brains. He they rode away some distance and shot himself dead. Sir George Gray our late Governor is still at Kawau. P. Davies & Go AUCTIONEERS AND COMMISSION MER-CHANTS.
